If you can't afford to buy a frame for your artwork for an exhibit, come to Open Studio ahead of the deadline and we'll try to pair you with a loaner frame you can borrow. Hint: It's easier to frame if your artwork is a standard size (such as 8x10, 11x14, 14x18, 16x20, or 18x24 inches, etc).

Gallery Grunt Team: If you'd like to help install these exhibits, we'd welcome your help! We have a team of 6 to 10 people who dedicate a few hours three times a year to hang artwork in the gallery. Installations are always on a Saturday from 10:00 to 3:00. We love and appreciate our grunts! For more info, contact jessie.nilo@vineyardboise.org.

UPCOMING VINEARTS EXHIBITS

To be determined.

Please visit
vineartsboise.org
under "Exhibits" for updates.

Thank you!

To ensure a cohesive gallery, your artwork and statement should have to do with extending compassion and mercy to others, or how it feels to have compassion and mercy extended to you.

Ask the Holy Spirit to show you His grace through His presence and His Word.

Create visual art, writing, poetry, etc. in response to Him. May God bless you as you create!

What if my artwork doesn't fit this theme?

... Then it might not be accepted into this particular show. If it doesn't fit, just wait for a different VineArts exhibit.

Note: We'd really love to get this clear envelope back at the same time you turn in your Release Form.

If you've decided not to submit art for "Amazing Grace," please return this entire packet to church so that someone else can use it.

Calling for stories of ill-deserved grace: sacrifice, mercy, forgiveness, outreach, compassion

You're invited to express ways you've seen grace in action.

Show us what love and sacrifice mean to you.

What acts of kindness have moved you to tears? What acts of selfless heroism have inspired you? What emotions can describe the way God rescues the very people who have hurt him and despised him?

Stories in black 3-ring binders are welcome, as is drawing, painting, sculpture, framed poetry, photography, mixed media, textile/fabric art, stained glass, etc.

Optional: Come to Open Studio with your small group to create a "Grace Project" response together, or schedule a special studio time for groups. Email jessie.nilo@vineyardboise.org to arrange.

Please note: All artist statements must now be typed ONLINE at vineartsboise.org. We no longer accept artwork that is dropped off without having a corresponding statement typed online.

"Grace means undeserved kindness. It is the gift of God to man the moment he sees he is unworthy of God's favor." —Dwight L. Moody

"Grace, like water, flows to the lowest part." —Philip Yancey

"This righteousness is given through faith in Jesus Christ to all who believe. There is no difference between Jew and Gentile, for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, and all are justified freely by his grace through the redemption that came by Christ Jesus." Romans 3:22-24

"And as grace is free, so is it sure. Nothing can change, or alter, or turn away sovereign grace." —Alexander Whyte

"Three times I pleaded with the Lord to take [the thorn in my side] away from me. But he said to me, "My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness." Therefore I will boast all the more gladly about my weaknesses, so that Christ's power may rest on me." 2 Cor 12:8-9

"A man can no more take in a supply of grace for the future than he can eat enough today to last him for the next 6 months, nor can he inhale sufficient air into his lungs with one breath to sustain life for a week to come. We are permitted to draw upon God's store of grace from day to day as we need it." —Dwight L. Moody

"Laughter is the closest thing to the grace of God." —Karl Barth

Your worst days are never so bad that you are beyond the reach of God's grace. And your best days are never so good that you are beyond the need of God's grace.
- Jerry Bridges
